By completing this form, I accept full responsibility for the measurements provided. I realize that this gown will be worn beginning in July 2023 through July 2024. If I anticipate that my daughter will grow during this time period, I understand that the gown can be ordered a size or two larger than her current measurements to allow for that growth. Please take this information into consideration when choosing the size to order. I have included payment of $90 for the gown (for sizes 0-26) made payable to "Rhode Island Grand Assembly".

Note: The size chart shows the actual body size. Please select a size according to your actual measurement. On the basis of that, the dress will allow for some stretching room for the wearer. The Hollow to hem(front) measurement of our standard dresses already includes 2 inches (ca.5 cm) extra to fit high heels. Size chart is provided as a general sizing guide only. Specific measurements vary with each style.

-- Bust

- This is NOT your bra size
- Wear an unpadded bra (your dress will have built-in bra).
- Relax arms at sides.
- Pull tape across the fullest part of the bust.

-- Waist

- Find the natural waist.
- This is the smallest part of the waist.
- Usually about 1 inch (ca.2.5cm) above belly button.
- Keep tape slightly loose to allow for breathing room.

-- Hips

- Find the widest part of the hips.
- Usually about 7 inch(ca.18cm) below natural waist.
- Tape should brush across both hipbones.

-- Hollow to Hem

- Stand up straight with bare feet together
- Measure from the center of the collarbone, down to where the hem of the dress should hit(excluding any train).
